

Kilcock Street -
Sept 28th /80.

My darling Lucy,

I thought I would send you a line this time though I do not feel quite sure that it is your turn.

I received yours & Susie's letters on Friday last week and was so delighted to get your tinograph. Currier's full face I scarcely recognized and I gave it to Lottie and Fanny to play with. Her side face is much better. Susie's full face I like very much but her side face is shocking - she appears to squint badly. Yours are looking quite plump in yours - but it is very good. I only wished I had Fred's. I have not any of his at all like him - Arthur I have. so I do not mind so much not having histiograph.

I was very pleased to hear you were first in Euclid - & that you stood so well in French & Grammar Give my love to Katie and tell her I am glad she was so successful - I am sure you have worked well dear and I feel quite satisfied

Your monthly report was very good. I went to see dear Father on Saturday as he was sadly disappointed to find him not so well. He was not sleeping so well again - still he is not worse, for he continues to eat well which is a great comfort. I had hoped to have him home by this time, but they advised me to let him remain at present - for he is in that state that a very little
